God's power and control over the universe

The nature of God's power

What is power?

Power is the ability to control people or other things.

God is the creator of heaven and earth

- He created all living and non living things
 - He created what we see and what we can't see
 - He provides security to people and other things in the world -
- His power has no beginning or end
- God's power is everlasting and self existing

Names of God (Allah)

Allah has 99 names and these names show the power of God

Some of them are;

- Omni present
 - He is called the light
 - The all powerful
 - The king of kings
 - The one who watches all activities and takes care of all creatures -
- Omni potent (creator)
- The giver of life
 - The one who causes death

Comparison between God and other gods (idols and spirit)

- Allah can create while gods can not

For more lesson notes, visit www.freshteacheruganda.com

- Allah is one while gods are many
- Allah gives life while gods /spirits can't
- Allah is living and will never die while spirits belong to the dead - Allah has powers upon the spirits while spirits and idols do not have power upon Him.
- Allah does not look like any of His creatures while some idols look like creatures of God

Zakat and sadaqha

What is zakat?

Zakat refers to alms of giving. (Alms are gifts of money, clothes or food to poor people)

- To get blessings
- To request for needs
- To get rewards
- To be forgiven

Islam in Uganda

Islam is total submission to the will of Allah

Origin of Islam

The Arabs that introduce Islam in Uganda came from the Middle East. Islam was introduced in Uganda in 1844 by Arab traders in Buganda. They were led by Sheikh Ahmed Bin Ibrahim.

These Arab traders were received in Buganda by Kabaka Suuna II.

Ahmed Ibrahim came with others like Snay Ibn Amir, Isa Ibn, Hussein and Rezaain. Suuna II had converted into Islam before his death in 1854.

The Arabs introduced many trade items such as

- Guns
- Beads
- Mirrors
- Spices

The Arabs were given a warm welcome because they came with guns which the Baganda used for protection and expanding their territory by raiding neighbours.

Circumstances under which Islam was spread

The major cause for the coming of Arabs to Uganda was to trade. They only preached Islam for the purpose of creating friendly relationships with their trade partners (The Baganda).

They were interested in trade items like:-

- Ivory

- Gold
- Slaves

For more lesson notes, visit www.freshteacheruganda.com

Why Arabs came to Uganda

- To trade
- To spread Islam
- To escape from religious wars

Effects of Arab migration into Uganda

- Islam was introduced
- Swahili culture resulted
- Introduction of zebu cows
- Introduction of cowries shells
- New way of dressing ie. Kanzu
- New items of trade were introduced
- They started stone building style

Impacts of Islam in Uganda

- Led to a new dressing style i.e. kanzu and taban
- It has created unity among tribes in Uganda
- Arabic language was introduced as a result of Islam
- Improved general hygiene of Ugandans by putting emphasis on cleanliness - Islamic way of greeting “Salaam” has replaced a traditional way of greeting - Led to new regulations for slaughtering animals for public consumption i.e. slaughtered by Muslims while facing the Kibla

Islamic organizations in Uganda

- Uganda Muslim Supreme Council (UMSC)
- Uganda Muslim Education Association (UMEA)

History of Islam

The Islamic religion was introduced by the Arab traders who came to Uganda from the coast of East Africa. They moved across the Indian Ocean using dhows

The Arabs were welcomed by Kabaka Ssuuna who later on converted into it. Kabaka Muteesa I later on upheld the activities of Islam after the death of Ssuuna II his father

He was given the name “Muteesa” by Muslims

Meaning “negotiator” to replace Mukabya which meant the one who makes others cry

How Muteesa I promoted Islam in Buganda

He allowed many forms of Islam such as

- Use of Islamic calendar
- Use of Islamic greetings
- Eating meat slaughtered

For more lesson notes, visit www.freshteacheruganda.com

- He ordered for the construction of mosques

Factors which favoured the spread of Islam during Muteesa’s regime

- It was the only religion in Buganda at that time
- The Arab traders offered good items like guns hence most people liked them -

They introduced skills of writing , craft making like mats

- The decline of Islam
- The progress of Islam started reducing from 1875 to 1884
- That was the time when an European called Henry Morton Stanley came to Buganda and convinced Muteesa I about his home country as being a powerful one that could support him in every need.

- H.M Stanley further talked to him about Christianity, a religion in his country which made Muteesa I to invite missionaries to his kingdom
- Why did Muteesa invite Christian missionaries to Buganda?
- He expected guns from them
- He wanted them to spread Islam in Buganda

Religious wars in Buganda

The period between 1884-1889 was characterized by religious wars in Buganda. After the death of Muteesa I in 1884, he was succeeded by his son Mwanga. At this time, there were three major religions in Buganda i.e.

- Islam
- Roman Catholics
- Protestants

The Christian religious worked together against Islam although at some points they had misunderstandings.
