51. Read the story below and answer the questions.

Mr. Musooka owns a bakery in Kasaali village. He employs two bakers, a sales person and his wife who is a cashier. This bakery makes different products. These include cakes, bread, buns and doughnuts. The bakery is open all days except Sunday. Since this is the only bakery in his village, he receives a lot of customers. They like his products because they are delicious. Sometimes, he supplies his products to customers in the nearby town in his service vans. Shop owners buy bread from him while supermarkets buy all the products he makes. Every morning, his service van delivers the products to the customers.

During the Christmas season, Mr. Musooka's bakery is very busy. This is because there are very many parties and people need cakes to buy. In this season, he makes the highest profits in the year.
