MULUMBA EARNS BIG FROM FARMING

Mr. Mulumba is a thirty-three-year old, farmer in Busunju village. He was born in Rwanda. He came to Uganda in 1995, a year after genocide that left many people dead and others without homes. Mr. Mulumba is the only person who survived in his family of thirteen people. Mr. Mulumba's parents, Mr and Mrs. Kalisa and others, including his twin-brother, Buzare passed on during the war.

Hardly had Mr. Mulumba's brother been killed by armed soldiers when Mr. Mulumba decided to flee for his costly life. He entered Uganda through Kabale District, Western Uganda, walked long miles in thorny thickets and bushes.

Nine months later, Mr. Mulumba met Mr. Ssemanda, a popular farmer. Mr. Ssemanda offered Mr. Mulumba free training on animal keeping. He developed a lot of interest and love towards this occupation that he paddocked his small land and started zero grazing at his home.

Pregnant mothers, people with hotels and all nearby families go to his home to buy milk and other dairy products from his farm.

He has many customers from almost all corners because his daily products are of high quality and exceptionally good.

Mr. Mulumba hopes to expand his dairy farm because he has got a lot of money from his farm. He has built a big house and married a Ugandan woman. Mr. Mulumba and his spouse have two sets of twins aged 10 six and nine years. Mr. Mulumba hopes to stand as a chairperson LC III Busunju Sub-county because people know him as a hardworking and helpful person to his community.

Questions.
