51. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions about it. Using full sentences.

Chuma was a stubborn boy at Lumino Primary School. He hated schooling and instead liked going to the Lake to fish. For the few days he could go to school, he always reached late.

One day, he did not want to go to school. So remained in bed pretending to be sick. His mother brought packed roasted meat and said to him, "if you are to go to school take this for your break, if not I will give it to your sisters."

Chuma got up very fast and put on his uniform. Off he ran to school with the meat. After a short distance, he decided to hide in the nearby bush and eat the meat. A few minutes later, hunters with dogs passed by. Their dogs caught the smell of the roasted meat and started running towards the bush where Chuma was hiding.

Thinking that the dogs had caught a smell of a game, the hunters held their shining spears up ready to kill. As the dogs were about to reach Chuma, a snake crawled on to his leg. He shouted on top of his voice and the dogs got frightened. The hunters too ran as fast as their legs could carry them. They feared that they had attacked the ghost of the forest.

Chuma got out of the bush shaking in fear and went to school. He went to the head teacher's office and told him the whole story. He confessed never to hide again. since that day Chuma became a good boy, studied well and he is a doctor today. He is the medical superintendent of Kitgum General Hospital.
