51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Though Mr. Besigye is a prominent business man, he has passion for farming. He has a big farm in his village Busambe. On his farm, he keeps dairy cattle, beef cattle, goats, sheep.

He wakes up before dawn and goes to his farm to check on his animals. If some of them show signs of illness, he calls a veterinary doctor to treat them. Some are isolated to avoid infecting others.

The workers on his farm are devoted to their work. They work tirelessly sunrise to sunset. Due to their hard work, the production from the farm is pleasing.

The farm manager, Mr. lumbugu Herbbert, sells over one hundred litres of milk and more than twenty hides from cattle slaughtered everyday. On Tuesdays and Saturdays, the butchers around Kampala wait for the beef, goat meat and mutton from Mr. Besigye's farm.

He has used this money to expand his business, construct houses for tenants and pay school fees for his children.

Even students from different agricultural colleges visit his farm to learn modern methods of farming.
