SECTION B

51. Read the story and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Last term, there was an inter-school debate between St. Mary's Junior School – Seeta and Seeta Boarding Primary School. The chairperson was a pupil from St. Mary's Junior School – Seeta.

The motion was "Women and men should have equal rights". St. Mary's Junior School opposed the motion. Among the speakers from Seeta Boarding was Ann who presented strong views in favour of the motion.

The secretary recorded the points which both the proposers and opposers raised. There were points of information from the audience as well.

Each speaker was allowed three minutes. At the end of the debate, the secretary read out the points which proposers and opposers had each presented. St. Mary's Junior School won the debate because the pupils presented more points against the motion than Seeta Boarding pupils.

The headmaster of the hosting school thanked the teachers and pupils for participating fully in such an exciting debate. He encouraged the pupils to prepare for the inter-district debates for next year in February.
