The news came in a surprise. None of us thought that our good teacher. Mr. Olupo would abandon us. At first we guessed, may be he got a serious problem in the village. We knew being in P6 would not be an easy journey to complete since we made a week without learning our favorite subject. “English”

One Monday morning, the DOS (Director of studies) entered the class and he said. “I know what you are going through , but I promise to recruit another teacher to help you in English. He will bring life back to you in the department.”

We were too impatient to wait any longer. At 10 o’clock in the morning, a young dark skinned gentleman was brought in the class. “Girls and boys, as I promised you yesterday, here is the new teacher of English,” said the DOS, “ Please you may introduce yourself to the learners” added the DOS. “My name is Mr Okello Joram, the new teacher introduced himself. We happily clapped our hands and the DOS left for his office.
