Carpentry and tailoring are some of the occupations from which many people earn their living. These occupations involve making furniture and clothes of different designs. Whereas carpentry involves mending broken and worn out furniture, tailoring involves mending old and torn clothes..

These two occupations do not discriminate between men and women. A person whose job is making and repairing wooden objects is a carpenter. A woman whose job is sewing and making clothes is referred to as a seamstress.

Mr. Nsimbe is a renowned carpenter, whereas his wife Mrs. Nsimbe is a famous seamstress. They both have big workshops in Pako Trading Centre, Zambo District. The two have not only earned a living from their work, but they have also educated their four children in good schools.

Though they both began with few tools to use, they have become popular in their trading centre and beyond. They get clients from even outside Uganda. People love them because they use quality materials such as planes, drills, sewing machines, bobbins among others. Besides, Mrs. Nsimbe is very honest unlike other tailors.
